Dear Parent/Guardian

Half Term Revision 2017

As you will be aware, the GCSE examinations begin soon. We are offering revision classes during half term and a timetable of the dates and subjects on offer is attached.

Please note that although these are free to students we are not able to offer transport or catering facilities. Students must remain on site until the end of the session each day.

Please return the attached reply slip to your son/daughter's tutor or reception as soon as possible. It is imperative that this is returned so that teaching staff know how many students will be attending their class. Unfortunately, if a reply slip is not returned, we are unable to allow attendance to the class. Attendance is only permitted through this book-in-advance procedure. At each session, students must sign in at the foyer (a list of names will be on a desk).

I hope you will encourage attendance at these valuable classes.

Yours sincerely
